

FLORIDA A&M UNIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM OFFICE

CONGRATULATIONS on a job well done as a high school junior that transitioned to a graduating senior, during, the COVID-19 pandemic!

This year’s pool of applicants will be competitive. Many realize the importance and the small window of opportunity to compete for scholarships. We, at Florida A&M University recognize this and will endeavor to make accommodations, when necessary.

In the meantime, it is very important that you submit by the priority deadline, September 30, the following:

- (1) Admissions application (completed)
- (2) High school transcript (official)

All college entrance exams are due by November 7, 2020.

- (1) *SAT (FAMU SAT code is 5215) or ACT test scores (FAMU ACT code is 0726)

Due to COVID-19 pandemic, additional dates have been added. For the fall, the new test dates are listed below. We advocate taking either of these college entrance exams to meet our November 7 test date, deadline.

College Entrance Exams	August	September	October	November	All Scores available by	# of Test by November
* SAT	August 29, 2020	September 26	October 3	November 7	November 20 (11/7 test date)	4
 ACT		September 12, 13, & 19	October 10, 17, 24 & 25		November 6 (10/25 test date and before)	7

For scholarship purposes, we strongly suggest you bookmark the University Scholarship Program website. If there are updates and changes to our process, they will be posted here. So, check in regularly.

As we continue to monitor the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, we will endeavor to make the allowable and necessary adjustments to accommodate those applicants that have submitted their completed admissions application and official high school transcript by September 30th.

If you would like to received updates via FAMU Mail, please make sure you have an admissions application on file. Otherwise, you may continue to check our website for updates. If you have encountered IT issues with your iRattler after submitting your electronic application contact IT help desk at (850) 412-4357. For issues only with your FAMU email account or do not have one, please contact our Ms. A. Teresa Williams at 850-412-5984 after you have submitted your admissions application.
